

SHEET 1: BACKLIT TRAY FINGERLING COUNT, 30-DAY SURVIVAL & FEED CONVERSION (FCR) LOGBOOK
(CHAPTER 8)

From The Missing Step: How to Start a Business in Food and Farming · Keep twin signed slips for every stocking & feed delivery

<https://the-missing-step.pages.dev>

Cluster / District: _____ Operator Name: _____ Season / Year: _____

Slip	Pond Farmer & Village	Species & Size Grade (mm)	Lit-Tray Count Delivered	Rate / 1,000 (₹)	Informal Rate Asked Nearby	Day-30 Net Sample Survival %	Effective Cost / Survivor (₹)	Total Feed Supplied (kg)	Harvested Fish Wt (kg)	Measured FCR	Both Signs
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14

CHAPTER 8 STOP-RULES: (1) Never sell a survival warranty in Season 1, and never pamper control ponds with free feed. (2) Do not pour concrete for a floating-feed mill until this trading register proves enough local tonnage to beat the landed dealer bag price after bank EMI.

SHEET 2: VILLAGE GOAT COLD-BOX VACCINATION & ULTRASONIC MILK FAT/SNF RECEIPT LEDGER (CH. 10 & CH. 11)

Mandatory vaccine cold-carrier temperature log & live-weight / milk-analyzer transparency register

https://the-missing-step.pages.dev

Village / Center: _____ Para-Vet / Milk Operator: _____ Cold-Box Thermometer Reading at Start: _____ °C (Must be 2°C–8°C)

#	Household Name & Mobile	Animal Tag / Milk Can ID	Vaccine / Test (PPR / ET / Fat-SNF)	Batch No. & Cold-Box °C	Milk Litres OR Live Wt (kg)	Fat % / SNF % OR Grade	Printed Rate (₹)	Total Payable / Fee (₹)	Next Booster / Payout Date	Member Sign
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14

CHAPTER 10 & 11 STOP-RULES: (1) If the vaccine carrier thermometer rises above 8°C, discard the vial—never inject warm vaccine. (2) Keep the animal alive for two seasons before offering buck breeding or feed credit. (3) Hand the printed thermal slip to the dairy farmer at the pouring counter.